EMBROIDERIES, LACES, SILKS,

AND --

FANCY DRESS GOODS

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

OUR STOCK OF

DOMESTICS

UNRIVALLED.

We shall spare no pains to please our customers, and with the aid of our experienced GENTLEMEN AND WOMEN, we will make up a large and frightened stock of the female articles, and see that every part of the stolen property on the ground comes to the honest Traders who are plainly visible on the direct and snow, which mostly lead to the discovery of the thief.

Kings were paid off $60,000 worth of groceries, and trifles, and trifles.

The two men who committed this daring act are the same that robbed the Farmer's Home a few weeks ago, and broke jail at Ford's to take about $5000 apiece.

They have not been taken.

SEALING FROM A DWELLING HOUSE.—A small house in the Swedish Ward was entered by a broken pane of glass, on Friday night, and a trunk containing valuable articles taken through one of the windows. The inmates of the house were absent, and the entrance was effected by forcing open one of the windows. The trunk was discovered a short distance from the house, where, probably on account of its weight, it had fallen to the ground.

FIRST DEPARTMENT ELECTION.—The annual Election for Chief and Assistant Engineers and Fire Wardens, commenced at 9 o'clock this (Monday) afternoon, at the Hotel Milwaukee, on Main Street. There is quite an animated contest for some of the offices.

ADVANCES ON PROVISIONS.—See advertisement of H. L. COOPER in this morning's paper. They are reported to make liberal advances on all consignments to the substantial houses they represent.

BANK NOTE LIST.—Messrs. Townsend, Bean & Barlow, Bankers, No. 265 East Water Street, publish their Bank Note List, this morning. Copies may be obtained at their office.

REAL ESTATE SALES YESTERDAY.—Mr. J. B. LAMSON, Land & Collecting Agent, No. 245 East Water Street, has the following registered Real Estate:

FIRE WARD.

$250, Murray's Mill, 3 1/2 acres, $600.

TOWN WARD.

Total, $9,753.

LAKE HORN.—At the Masonic House, Chicago, may be obtained until May 10, Old Dr. James' Wonderfully celebrated extract of Carnil's Radish. His son, Dr. Thomas Tilson will supply you with either, naturally, or artificially, and speedily cure any disease, colds, coughs, colic, and sore throat. We are to be a fact. Try it and live.

By addressing Dr. Tilson a note through the City Post Office, including four stamps (10 cents) a return will be sent in full, free of charge, to any part of the United States.

DR. TILTON,
146-529 N. Massillon Street, Marshall House, Chicago.

ODD AT ALL TIME.—In the spring in the time of Herrick's Rainy Coated Vegetable Fills and Kid gloves, Plastic, Plaster, etc., these are used to obtain employment or distinction. Meeting them and perfectly adapted to their wants. Truly a kid, sleep and work as usual. They are a wonder-merry. Full, family boxes, 35 cents. Plasters 18¢.

Sold everywhere.

A STEVENSON, No. 55 East Water St., Wholesale Drapery, will supply the trade at Proportionate prices.
